Secretary Segment

Brothers,

In our last newsletter, Karson talked about an exciting new year. In LECM we talked about goal setting and, looking forward, I feel that with our Lodge's goals we will have an amazing year!

I would like to share a few of our Lodge goals with you:

- 1001 members in the Lodge
- Full committees actively acting with a purpose
- 150 Arrowmen in attendance at Section Conclave
- Greater recognition of our Arrowmen and our Lodge

Achieving these goals, will make a major impact in our activities and capabilities both as a lodge and as individuals. This will give our Lodge a bright future.

Yours in Brotherhood,
Alton Mortensen
Lodge Secretary

LECM

Come to LECM on November 16th at 7pm and you will get to play hoverball archery. The hoverball archery game is available for rent for events and activities, and is popular for both Cubs and for Scouts. Chapters could use this fun event as a tool to let Cubs and Scouts know how cool it is to be in the OA. Patch Henderson from Chapter 17 will be at LECM to answer all your questions.

If you would like to add any sections or additional information to the newsletter, please contact Alton Mortensen by phone (801) 923-2442 or email elkutanewsletter@gmail.com .

Fellow Arrowman,

You are eligible to receive your brotherhood. Next Saturday will be the last change to go through the brotherhood ceremony this year.

Order of the Arrow Song

Order of the Arrow Admonition

During the October LECM we had a "Pumpkin Chuckin" where we launched pumpkins (by sling shot) in to Taylor lake aiming for glow in the dark rings. After we finished with the pumpkins, we came back inside the lodge and talked about goal setting. Some of the ways to set goals are: communication, aiming for the mark, and making it achievable. We also learned how sometimes we can't perfectly hit our goal but we can try to get as close as possible
